

ENTRY FORM

First Annual WonderMark Awards 2010

Wonder what they were thinking? Nominate them for a WonderMark Award!

Know of a confusing form, unreadable document, nonsensical sign, or other example of truly bad communication? It could win a WonderMark Award! Anyone can nominate, and you can submit materials you encounter at work, at home, or anywhere else. No entry fee! Limit 5 entries per person.

To submit a WonderMark entry:

- Read the terms of the awards program on the WonderMark web pages. These terms apply to all entries.
- Fill out this form on your computer. Use a separate form for each entry.
- Send us an email, with your form and an electronic version of your entry attached. Questions? Prefer to mail or fax your entry? Email us, or call us at 301-523-8563. WonderMark main web page: CenterForPlainLanguage.org/awards/index.html. Email for entries and questions: awards@centerforplainlanguage.org.

YOUR ENTRY

Title or description of your entry	Organization that produced the entry, if known
Where did you find this entry? Limit 250 characters
Tell us why you think this entry is bad or confusing (including any problems it has led to). Limit 750 characters

YOU

Name	Organization optional
Email	Phone - -	Date MM/DD/YY / /

If your entry wins, may we identify you as the person who submitted it?  Yes  No

CPL use only

[Empty box for CPL use only]